The response to this year's legislative survey yielded some very interesting results. It is so important for elected officials to connect with constituents in order to build a truly representative government. Your input will be a focal point of my priorities moving forward.

This correspondence contains an overview of how our friends and neighbors responded to this year's survey. If you have any questions regarding the 2013 legislative survey or any state issue, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Sincerely,
