A MESSAGE FROM

NEW YORK STATE ASSEMBLY

Assemblyman Andrew Garbarino has a plan to give our students a fair chance at a bright future by creating greater accountability, and giving students the tools they need to succeed.

“Good schools are vital to the success of our children, the future leaders of our great state.”

Let teachers focus on educating our children instead of navigating government red tape and ever changing policies.

Enhance awareness of occupational training programs for students.

Assure that Long Island schools are given a fair share of state funding.

Reassess the amount of tests required and the increased emphasis of testing on our children, teachers, and schools.

Offer incentives and partnerships with businesses to stop the brain drain to other states and keep our future leaders at home in our communities.
