NEW YORK STATE ASSEMBLY

Assemblyman Andrew Garbarino

Now is the time to fully fund Long Island's schools!

*G*ov. Cuomo is not only refusing to restore state education funding that was cut in 2010, he is also holding state aid numbers hostage, depriving Long Island school districts of the ability to plan this year's budget.

*C*onsidering how much Long Islanders pay in property taxes, we deserve to get our fair share of state education aid!

*A*sssemblyman Garbarino is fighting back. He is working with parents, students, and teachers to fully fund our schools, restore all the state aid lost in the 2010 education cuts, and deliver the best possible education to Long Island students.

Contact the Governor's Office at 518-474-8390 and tell him to stop playing politics with our kids' education!
