NEW YORK STATE ASSEMBLY

Assemblyman Andrew Garbarino

fought to make sure this year's state budget has the right tools to help Long Island GROW.

- ✓ $400 million for downstate infrastructure projects, including more sewers in Islip and Brookhaven;
- ✓ $638.1 million for local road, bridge and pothole repairs;
- ✓ Eliminates a costly layer of MTA payroll tax;
- ✓ 58 percent of the remaining 2010 GEA education cuts restored;
- ✓ $252 million in school aid for Islip and Brookhaven;
- ✓ Fixed STAR property tax exemption process;
- ✓ $91.6 million for Libraries; and
- ✓ Increased Community College base aid.
