Meet Chad Lupinacci ...Your New Assemblyman!

Newly Elected Assemblyman Chad Lupinacci is a lifelong resident of Huntington Station. As an educator, former School Board Trustee and attorney, he brings real world perspective to a state government in need of a reality check.

That's why he's making our top priorities his top priorities in Albany!

- Growing our economy and expanding the job market;
- Easing the burden on local property taxpayers by cutting the costly unfunded mandates that cripple our schools, towns and local governments; and
- Providing our children with their fair share of school aid they deserve.

State Assembly

For our great democracy to work properly, we need a government that is for the people, by the people. This only comes through a dialogue between you and me.

Contact me on Facebook to take our interactive polls and share your thoughts on how we can make our state government work for us!

Or reach out to my district office at 631-271-8025 or via email at lupinaccic@assembly.state.ny.us.

What do you see as the top issue facing our community in 2013?

- Property Taxes
- School Aid
- Job Availability
- College Affordability
- Economic Development
- None of the Above

If you selected 'None of the Above,' what do you feel is the biggest issue facing Long Island?
