State Assembly

Dear Neighbor,

The 2015 legislative session recently came to an end. While I was pleased with the progress on a number of issues, I remain committed to fight for our community's future.

This year, I helped:

- Increase school aid by $1.3 billion, and restore $603 million in school aid to offset the disastrous cuts that were made in 2010.
- Pass 9 women's equality bills to enact real pay equality, strengthen orders of protection and end human trafficking once and for all.
- Extend the 2-percent tax cap for four more years and secure an additional $1.3 billion in property tax relief for eligible homeowners.
- Increase Community College Base Aid, for a total of $2,597 per student.

In the coming year, I will continue to work toward implementing tougher ethics laws for corrupt politicians and fight to reform Common Core to protect our hardworking teachers and students.
