

The Assembly State of New York

Proclamation

Honoring
*Wellington C. Mepham High School
Class of 2014*

Assemblyman Dave McDonough awards the Assembly of the State of New York's highest honor, the Assembly Proclamation, to the Wellington C. Mepham High School Class of 2014, and declares March 19 St. Baldrick's Day in Bellmore, in honor of Giuliana Geller as she battles Undifferentiated Sarcoma.

Whereas, within every community there exist certain individuals who, by virtue of their energy, vision, dedication and spirit, provide the exemplary and necessary inspiration that benefits all community members and stand as shining examples of truth and compassion; and

Whereas, the 2014 Senior Class of Wellington C. Mepham High School has given generously of their time and efforts to benefit St. Baldrick's Foundation and its efforts to fund childhood cancer research; and

Whereas, the students chose St. Baldrick's Foundation, a volunteer-driven charity committed to funding the most promising research to find cures for childhood cancers and give survivors long and healthy lives, for its work to benefit the nearly 175,000 children who are diagnosed with cancer each year; and

Whereas, the 2014 Senior Class at Wellington C. Mepham High School has been deeply affected by Giuliana Geller's diagnosis with cancer and have through their actions worked to promote awareness of childhood cancer and the efforts of St. Baldrick's Foundation to the school and community; now, therefore, be it

Proclaimed, that as a duly-elected member of the Assembly of the State of New York, I am honored to recognize March 19, 2014 as "St. Baldrick's Day in Honor of Giuliana Geller" in Bellmore, New York and the 2014 Senior Class of Wellington C. Mepham High School for their dedication and support of Giuliana and the St. Baldrick's Foundation, and its efforts to end childhood cancer.
