Tom McKeivitt

Our Assemblyman
Fighting for an Affordable
Long Island

Tom is a lifelong resident of Nassau County who is dedicated to ensuring Long Island is a great place to live and raise our families. Tom is committed to putting community first, which is why he is a member of the East Meadow Kiwanis Club and the Chamber of Commerce, as well as serving as coach of the Holy Trinity Diocesan High School Mock Trial Team. Tom and his wife, Samantha, live in East Meadow with their two children.

Since Tom has been an elected official, he has made it a top priority to ease the tax burden on Long Island families and build stronger communities.

2011 and 2012 Wins

- Passed the largest middle-class tax cut in 58 years
- Increased state school aid to Long Island Schools
- Repealed the MTA payroll tax for small businesses
- Fought for fiscal responsibility in Albany by passing consecutive on-time budgets that closed a $13.5 billion deficit without raising taxes

Priorities for the future

- Continue to fight for lower property taxes
- Stop the Governor from stripping funding for Long Island schools and sending the money to other parts of the state
- Demand action on LIPA so the travesties in the wake of Hurricane Sandy will not be repeated
- Cap state spending at or below the inflation rate and require all legislation to specify the cost to taxpayers
