

Sharon Daly

Sharon Daly is a lifelong resident of Valley Stream; her family has roots in the community since the 1920s. Sharon is an Administrative Officer for the Town of Hempstead Sanitation Department. She is the proud mom of her daughter, Arline, an elementary school teacher for the NYC Board of Education.

Sharon likes getting involved and having FUN! Her all-time favorite thing to do is plan and organize parties and events. When she is not doing that, Sharon keeps herself rather busy volunteering within her Valley Stream Community. She is a past president of the Valley Stream Green Hornet's Youth Football Organization, having served five terms. Currently she serves as a member of the Green Hornet's Executive Board, runs their Cheerleading program and oversees the Hornet's Concession Stand operation at Firemen's Field in Valley Stream. She has dedicated her time and talents to the Green Hornets for close to 30 years in various capacities, demonstrating her loyalty and commitment to the youngsters in the community. She is totally devoted to the success of this program.

Sharon is a Valley Stream Central High School graduate, and is the current President of the Valley Stream Central High School Alumni Association, which boasts an over 4,500 person membership. Not only does she serve as president, she is also Editor of the Central H.S. Alumni CRIER, the Association's bi-annual publication circulated to Central High Alumni members nationwide.

In addition, she is actively involved at Holy Name of Mary Parish in Valley Stream, having served as a Vincentian for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul through the Parish Outreach Program for the past nine years.

When some wonder how she is able to succeed in her endeavors, her usual reply is, "Someone once told me, THE MORE YOU DO, THE MORE YOU CAN DO!" She simply enjoys people, being active in her hometown community, and most of all, having FUN!
