

“I’m just as tired of the corruption in Albany as you are. That’s why I passed a law stripping corrupt politicians of their pensions.”

–Assemblywoman Michaëlle Solages

Assemblywoman Solages fought for new laws to clean up corruption

Stripped taxpayer-funded pensions from corrupt politicians (A.10739-A)

Limited big money in politics by regulating PACs and independent expenditure groups (A.10742)

Enhanced disclosure for lobbyists to shine a light on government dealings (A.10742)

Assemblywoman
Michaëlle Solages will also continue fighting to close the “LLC loophole” and stop special interests from unfairly influencing elections.
