CUOMO, LAWMAKERS AGREE TO BOLSTER DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PENALTIES

Assemblyman Moya cracks down on domestic violence offenders

“My focus is getting domestic violence victims the help they need and giving offenders the punishment they deserve.”

– Assemblyman Francisco P. Moya

Assemblyman Moya voted for a new law that will protect domestic violence victims and crack down on repeat offenders (A.10624).

Earlier this year, Assemblyman Moya also helped pass an extensive package of anti-domestic violence bills and urged federal reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act.
