

Assemblyman Francisco P. Moya is holding banks and mortgage lenders accountable

Assemblyman Moya

helped pass the Foreclosure Fraud and Prevention Act. If the Senate passes it, we can impose new misdemeanor and felony-level penalties – including jail time – on bankers and lenders who cheat and defraud homeowners.

Managers who fail to stop fraud by their employees would also be held accountable.

“The Senate should help us send a message to banks and mortgage lenders: New York’s hardworking families who are victims of the recession will not be taken advantage of.” – Assemblyman Moya
