- Reinstating the EPIC co-payment assistance program, so seniors will once again pay no more than $20 for each prescription
- Maintaining the spousal refusal program so seniors with ailing spouses can afford the care their significant other needs
- Expanding the In-Home Services for the Elderly Program (EISEP) and the Community Services for the Elderly Program (CSE)
- Sponsored and passed legislation to speed up approval of applications for the Senior Citizen Rent Increase Exemption (SCRIE) and also make sure more seniors learn about how they can avoid annual rent increases and keep their apartments.
