

Assemblyman Michael R. Benedetto cracks down on cyberbullying

“With today’s technology, cyberbullying is a new and devastating threat to our children. I helped pass a law to create a safe and secure learning environment for students.”

– Assemblyman Benedetto

Assemblyman Benedetto gets tough on bullies

The legislation requires school districts to have:

a mandatory reporting system for all incidents of bullying or cyberbullying and increased training for staff procedures for parents and students to report bullying to school officials so it's addressed quickly an official policy for handling harassment or bullying anti-bullying education classes and Internet instruction for all current staff and students, grades kindergarten through 12th
