

Assemblyman Frank Skartados' African American History Month Essay Contest

Please interpret the following quote and its meaning to you:

“Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that.”

– Martin Luther King Jr.

Prizes and certificates will be awarded to top essayists from middle schools and high schools in the 104th Assembly District. Essays must be between 250 - 300 words, typed and submitted to your English Department, or via email to pacellaf@assembly.state.ny.us by attaching the essay as a Word, Open Office or .PDF document.
