

“As a product of the public school system, I know how important a quality education can be in shaping our kids’ future. I fought to invest more in our schools and libraries so every child has the opportunities they deserve.”

Frank Skovlatos

Assemblyman Skartados is fighting for our schools

The 2016-17 state budget includes:

$5.8 million more for the Newburgh Enlarged City School District

A full repeal of the Gap Elimination Adjustment (GEA), restoring $153,483 to Newburgh schools

Increased library funding to preserve access to vital learning resources

A freeze on SUNY tuition to help keep college affordable

Questions? Concerns? I'm here to help.
