

“Wishing you and your family a safe and joyous holiday season!”

– Assemblymember Phil Steck

Dear Friend,

I want to wish you and your family a safe and happy holiday season.

As one year ends and another begins, it's important that we continue the progress we've already made.

In the new year, we will be addressing issues such as government corruption, developing good-paying jobs in new and emerging industries and examining the tax burden on families and businesses.

As always, our purpose is to make the Capital Region the best possible place to live. I enjoy representing you, and do not hesitate to contact me with any issue that is on your mind concerning the State of New York.

Sincerely yours,

Phil Steck
