

“North Country schools have been shortchanged for too long. I’m fighting to make sure our schools get their fair share of state aid so that our kids can receive a top-notch education.”

– Assemblywoman
Addie J. Russell

Assemblywoman Addie J. Russell: Fighting for a brighter future for North Country students

- ✓ Secured $13.5 million more for North Country schools over last year's budget
- ✓ Reformed Common Core to protect students from unfair consequences based on test results and restricted the sharing of student data
- ✓ Secured $34 million to make quality child care more affordable
- ✓ Increased maximum Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) grants to $5,165 per full-time student

Assemblywoman
Addie J. Russell

317 Washington St., Suite 210 | Watertown, NY 13601 | 315-786-0284 | RussellA@assembly.state.ny.us | @AddieRussell