Anthony Brindisi

is working for seniors

EPIC

- Assemblymember Brindisi voted to restore $30.6 million in the budget for co-pay assistance
- Starting January 1, 2013, seniors will pay between $3 and $20 for each prescription

Making life more affordable

Assemblymember Brindisi fought to keep your costs down. He:

- Cut income taxes for middle-class families to the lowest rates in 58 years
- Eliminated the state sales tax on clothing and shoes under $110
- Shifted burdensome Medicaid costs off counties, providing relief through a phased-in state takeover

Keeping our families safe

- Assemblymember Brindisi authored two laws toughening requirements and procedures for repeat sex offenders (Ch. 363 of 2012 and Ch. 364 of 2012)
- Created I-STOP, the first real-time prescription-drug database in the country, allowing doctors to track and fight against prescription drug abuse (Ch. 447 of 2012)
- Voted to create the most expansive DNA databank in the nation (Ch. 19 of 2012)
- Reformed New York's care of people with special needs and disabilities (A.10721)
