

For Assemblyman Steve Hawley, it's all about JOBS

ASSEMBLYMAN
STEVE
HAWLEY

Small businesses employ nearly 52 percent of New York's workforce, and Assemblyman Steve Hawley is fighting to protect upstate's economy and job opportunities

- Voted against downstate politicians' job-killing minimum wage to protect our local farms and small businesses (S.6406-C)
- Sponsors the Small-Business Full Employment Act to provide tax and regulatory cuts to local businesses and allow them to create jobs in our community (A.5898A)
- Fighting AGAINST unionization of farm workers, which would devastate our local agriculture industry and close many family-owned farms
- Supports the Hire-NY tax credit to provide more job opportunities for local college graduates (A.5209)
- Fighting to replace the governor's failed START-UP NY program, which has cost $53 million and created only 408 jobs
