RESTORING TRUST

Assemblyman Andy Goodell has always sought the highest standards for New York State. That's why he supports bipartisan bills like A.377 that would strip convicted legislators of their state-funded pensions, and co-sponsored A.6975 to close a campaign finance loophole that treats LLCs like individuals who can give up to $150,000 annually while masking their identities.

Goodell also supports legislation banning Pay-to-Play in Albany:

- Prohibiting donations from lobbyists and businesses with pending legislation or contracts with the state;
- Banning payments to a campaign in exchange for political favors; and
- Eliminating conflicts of interest.
