ETHICS IN ALBANY...

...STARTS WITH ACCOUNTABLE LEADERSHIP.

Assemblyman Doug Smith is a consistent supporter of Long Island businesses. He knows New Yorkers need real economic development, real jobs, and real ethics reform, not more rhetoric promising jobs and future prosperity and growth.

Holding our state leaders accountable and ensuring our hard-earned tax dollars are being used effectively need to be top priorities in the state Legislature. That's why Assemblyman Smith is pushing for the big changes we need, including:

- Increased reporting requirements to ensure we know how our money is being spent
- Increased financial disclosure requirements to ensure our politicians can't be bought
- Campaign finance reforms to prevent 'pay-to-play' politics in Albany
- Reduced tax burdens on Long Island's business owners
