

Brown's Office Gains Valuable Asset in New Manager Jordyn Rickles

Assemblyman Keith P. Brown (R,C,I- Northport) is proud to recognize Jordyn Rickles for her exceptional service to the people of the 12th Assembly District.

A Dix Hills resident who has spent most of her life right here, striving to make Long Island a better place, she is the newest addition to Assemblyman Brown's district office team. Jordyn graduated in 2021 from Stony Brook University, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts in English.

Jordyn has taken over as the office manager for Assemblyman Brown's district office, located at 75 Woodbine Avenue in Northport. There she runs day-to-day operations, meeting and interacting with Suffolk County residents to make the community the best it can be.

"It's an honor to be able to serve my neighbors as the newest addition to Assemblyman Brown's team, and I look forward to working toward all of our shared passion; making Long Island the best place on earth to call home."

