

A report to the 25th Assembly District from

ASSEMBLYWOMAN NILY ROZIC

April 2014

PROMOTING TRAFFIC SAFETY IN FRESH MEADOWS

After the tragic death of Allison Liao, I worked with Senator Toby Stavisky, Council Member Peter Koo, and the NYC Department of Transportation to implement stronger traffic calming measures along Cherry Avenue and Main Street. I also joined the Liao family, my colleagues in government, and the P.S. 173 community in Fresh Meadows to take a traffic and pedestrian safety pledge.

HONORING LOCAL PRINCIPALS FOR WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

In celebration of Women's History Month, I honored 23 women principals throughout our community for their hard work and leadership. These women of distinction represent a diverse cross-section of our community and ensure our students receive the quality education they deserve.

SAVING OUR AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAM IN BAYSIDE

After being threatened for closure, I visited M.S. 158 Beacon in Bayside Hills with Department of Youth & Community Development Commissioner Bill Chong, Council Member Paul Vallone, and Samuel Field Y administrators. The Department assured us that funding will be available to sustain the Beacon and provide our children with quality programs and services--a great victory for our community!

CALLING FOR IMMIGRATION REFORM IN FLUSHING

I stood with Congressman Steve Israel, Senator Toby Stavisky, and Assemblymembers Ron Kim, David Weprin and Ed Braunstein to call on Congress to pass comprehensive immigration reform. Immigration reform is a priority of mine, and I will continue to work with my colleagues in state government on the New York State DREAM Act.

GOING GREEN IN FLUSHING

I joined P.S. 154 teachers and students who were recognized with the Green Flag by National Wildlife Federation's Eco-Schools USA program for conserving natural resources and integrating environmental education into the curriculum. P.S. 154 is the second school in New York City, and only the 21st in the country, to achieve "Green Flag" status.
