THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA'S 245TH
ANNIVERSARY

ASSEMBLYMAN  JOHN LEMONDES

We, as Americans have a magnificent legacy and today, on our Nation's anniversary we celebrate our exceptionalism. From our brave warriors to our innovative entrepreneurs, and eclectic artisans to our inspired leadership, America has dominated the political, economic and cultural landscape for the past two centuries for a reason. The freedom she offers to every citizen is something we can never take for granted. As President Harry S. Truman said, "America was built on courage, on imagination and an unbeatable determination." That's what we celebrate today. Happy 245th Anniversary to all my fellow Americans!

COMMUNITY STRONG: Assemblyman Lemondes joins veterans from Skaneateles Falls American Legion Post 317 at a Memorial Day Ceremony

We as Americans have numerous fun pastimes. As your Assemblyman, I've had the distinct pleasure to participate in many of them with several new faces. I wanted to share some of those experiences here today, as well as some fun American facts you might not know about!

AG PRIDE: A sheep farmer and former president of the Farmer Veteran Coalition of New York, Assemblyman Lemondes regularly advocates for the needs of the agricultural and industrial communities

TRUE SPORTSMAN: An avid sportsman and Second Amendment advocate, Assemblyman Lemondes poses with a recently harvested turkey.

TEACHING THE FUTURE: Assemblyman Lemondes and his son enjoy a day on the water fishing, a job that over 160,000 Americans currently have.
