It's always DARKEST
before the DAWN

Five months after the COVID-19 shutdown, and Assemblyman Steve Hawley fought for you every step of the way.

STEVE HAWLEY
ASSEMBLYMAN

fighting for Western New York

What Steve did during the crisis:

- ✺ He and his office worked closely with constituents to ensure they got the unemployment benefits they deserved
- ✺ He constantly communicated with the Governor and his team to fight for the needs of Western New Yorkers, including:
  - ✳ Looking for ways to ensure graduations could be held safely
  - ✳ Finding solutions allowing religious institutions to reopen safely
  - ✳ Reopening libraries to ensure the public had access to resources like internet
  - ✳ Calling on the state health department to investigate nursing homes where unprecedented fatalities from COVID were occurring
- ✺ He has fought for the safe reopening of Western New York, stressing health and safety to ensure constituents can return to work

Steve is always looking out for his fellow New Yorkers, and he is always fighting for you!

Assemblyman Hawley represents the 139th District, which consists of Genesee, Orleans and parts of Monroe County. For more information, please visit Assemblyman Hawley's Official Website https://nyassembly.gov/mem/Stephen-Hawley

For more information on this or any state matter, please contact Steve Hawley at:
121 N. Main Street • Suite 100 • Albion, NY 14411
(585) 589-5780 • hawleys@nyassembly.gov

fighting for Western New York

STEVE HAWLEY