With the new tax cap in place, the next step we have to address at the state level is reducing mandates that increase costs to school districts, municipal governments, counties and libraries. Many groups have provided input already, but Sandy would like to hear from her local constituents and groups about how she can continue to work on prioritizing the most costly mandates.

No need to RSVP, just drop in. Questions? Call the office at (914) 941-1111. If you have suggestions for mandate relief but are not able to attend one of these open office hours days, please feel free to email your ideas to galefs@assembly.state.ny.us. This issue will also be covered in Sandy's upcoming newsletter to constituents and in her accompanying questionnaire.
