Look inside

to learn how Assemblywoman Jean-Pierre is working to combat the heroin epidemic

“No community in New York has been hit harder by the heroin epidemic than Suffolk County. Far too many of our loved ones and neighbors have fallen to addiction. Together, we can help those struggling get on the road to recovery.”

—Assemblywoman
Kimberly Jean-Pierre

Assemblywoman Kimberly Jean-Pierre

is helping people get on the road to recovery

This year, Assemblywoman Jean-Pierre:

- Helped secure $213 million in the state budget for substance abuse prevention programs, treatment and recovery
- Co-sponsored legislation to create a substance abuse awareness campaign to help reduce the stigma surrounding addiction so more people seek help

Last year, she passed laws to:

- increase the maximum time for detox in a treatment facility and require discharge planning
- require insurers to cover inpatient treatment and substance abuse medication
- allow more professionals to use Narcan to counteract an overdose

Assemblywoman Jean-Pierre also fought to secure $60,000 in last year's state budget for Copiague Community Cares and Lindenhurst Community Cares to combat the heroin epidemic through education, treatment and life skills
