Assemblywoman Judy Griffin:

A strong voice for our first responders

"From preventing crime and saving lives, to providing medical care, rescue services, and firefighting, our first responders are committed to safeguarding and protecting our communities. I am deeply grateful for their incredible service. That's why I work to ensure that our dedicated first responders on Long Island, NYC and throughout the state receive the resources and benefits they deserve."

Assemblywoman Griffin: Improving Public Safety

As Long Islanders, we have a deep respect for the brave first responders who risk their lives to protect us. Assemblywoman Griffin has secured resources and enacted laws that reflect our values as a collective community that appreciates the dedication of these men and women to public safety.

Legislative Accomplishments:

Assemblywoman Griffin:

- ★ Wrote and negotiated unanimous passage of her bill that will, upon the Governor's signature, establish a formal, confidential law enforcement peer support program, which will designate trained law enforcement officers to serve as counselors to fellow officers (A.6721-A). This bill was initiated in memory of State Trooper Lt. Joseph Banish.

Co-sponsored and helped pass legislation that would:

- ★ Extend the effectiveness of the September 11th Worker Protection Task Force Act (A.8417)
- ★ Provide New York City police officers who previously served as traffic enforcement with pension credit for their years of prior service (A.1778-C)
- ★ Expand benefits and services for post-traumatic stress disorder for emergency dispatchers and correction officers, aligned with what police officers and firefighters are provided (A.3549)
- ★ Authorize a 30-year retirement benefit for Nassau County corrections officers (A.7360)

Bolstering retention and strengthening NYPD retirement plans

- ★ Voted to provide financial incentives for detectives, sergeants and lieutenants who have served more than 25 years*
- ★ Voted to restore the 20-year retirement option for all members of the NYPD*

Funding for local law enforcement

- ★ Secured $30,000 for the Nassau County Police Department to support Problem-Oriented Policing (POP) in the First, Fourth and Fifth precincts+

*2025-26 State budget
+ 2025 Byrne Grant
