ADVOCATING FOR QUEENS COLLEGE FUNDING

As part of my efforts to prepare students to be leaders in the growing high-tech industry, I announced a $5 million request in state funding for Queens College to expand its facilities, resources, and services in environmental and STEM related studies and research. Ensuring Queens College has the technology it needs to equip students is an investment that benefits faculty, students, and the entire community.

MEETING WITH TENANTS

I had the chance to sit down with the Meadowlark Gardens Co-Op Board in Fresh Meadows to discuss ways we can collaborate and improve our community. Are you on a Co-Op Board or Tenant Association looking for help with community needs? Call or visit my office to see how we can help!

CELEBRATING LUNAR NEW YEAR

After months of organizing with the Flushing Chinese Business Association, I joined City Comptroller Scott M. Stringer, Congresswoman Grace Meng, State Senator Toby Ann Stavisky, Assemblymembers Ron Kim and Edward Braunstein, Council Member Peter Koo, and FCBA's Liu Tee Shu and Peter Tu in Flushing to mark the Year of the Ram!

EXPANDING ACCESS TO WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

State Senator Toby Ann Stavisky and I were at Queensborough Community College where we announced legislation that would create the Community College High-Tech Investment Program (C-CHIP). If enacted, community colleges across the state could apply for grants of up to $100,000 for the purposes of upgrading technology and job training programs for students and workers seeking occupation-specific training.
