Assemblymember Grace Lee sponsored the ICE Contract Transparency Act

“ICE has become a four-letter word for many
New Yorkers,” said Assemblymember Grace Lee

- New York Post, March 20, 2026

After it was discovered that ICE was parking at Hudson River Park, Assemblymember Lee sponsored legislation requiring companies doing business with ICE to disclose their contracts to the State. (A10460)

PROTECTING IMMIGRANT NEW YORKERS

- Limiting local government from coordinating with federal immigration enforcement (NY For All A3506)
- Banning ICE agents from wearing masks (MELT Act A8908)
- Allowing New Yorkers to sue federal officers who violate civil rights (NY Civil Rights Act A9076)
- Creating a statewide online database of ICE activity (RADAR Act A9376)
- Ensuring airlines are not being used for deportations (SAFE AIR Act A8188)

FIGHTING BACK AGAINST TRUMP ADMINISTRATION'S HARMFUL TARIFFS

The Trump administration's tariffs are increasing costs for New Yorkers. Assemblymember Lee highlighted the damaging impact of tariffs on small businesses in Chinatown and the Lower East Side.

SAFEGUARDING SMALL BUSINESSES FROM ICE

After an attempted ICE raid on the Lower East Side, Assemblymember Lee went door-to-door to small businesses with materials explaining what to do if federal agents enter, including workers' rights and how to respond.

KEEPING FOOD ON FAMILIES' TABLES

While The Trump administration cuts SNAP benefits, Assemblymember Lee is fighting for New Yorkers to get the financial assistance they need to feed their families. (A699)
