Holiday Gifts for NYCHA Children and Families

Assembly Member Rebecca Seawright Delivers Books and Toys Donated by Generous Constituents of Upper East Side, Yorkville and Roosevelt Island

"The holiday spirit is alive and well as constituents stepped forward and donated new and unwrapped books, toys, and board games for families and children in need," said Assemblymember Rebecca Seawright. Constituents dropped off holiday presents to Seawright's district storefront office on York Avenue and 79 St. during Seawright's annual month of December toy drive. The Assemblymember will deliver packages and boxes of gifts to the Stanley Isaacs Neighborhood Center. "Especially in this period of the pandemic, I wish to express on behalf of the children my deepest gratitude to my generous constituents who are helping to add joy in this challenging holiday season," Seawright said.
