

Dear Constituent,

Below please find information about this month's events and initiatives from my office, along with other time-sensitive information and a list of new laws going into effect in November 2025.

Vote in the 2025 General Election

If you haven't already voted, today, November 4 is your chance to do so! Polls are open from 6 AM to 9 PM. There are many important races on the ballot this year, including local, county and judicial elections, as well as a statewide proposition regarding the Adirondacks and local propositions in many areas. Westchester County residents can get more information about voting at <https://citizenparticipation.westchestergov.com>. Putnam County residents can visit <https://boe.putnamcountyny.gov> for more information.

Office Hours This Week

Assembly offices are closed Tuesday, November 4 for Election Day, and most of my district office staff will be traveling with me to a conference for much of the rest of the week. The district office will be open on Wednesday, November 5 and Friday, November 7 and closed on Thursday, November 6. If you need assistance on Thursday, November 6, please feel free to call my Albany office at (518) 455-5348.

SNAP Updates & November Food Drive

As of Monday, November 3, we are hearing that the Trump administration plans to only pay out partial benefits to Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) recipients for November. If you or a loved one rely on SNAP benefits, visit <https://otda.ny.gov/> for updates on the program and what to expect.

We are expecting the need for food pantries to continue to increase due to rising prices, a slowing economy, and changes to SNAP eligibility. My office will begin holding a monthly food drive to help support our local pantries, in addition to encouraging monetary donations to pantries and our local food banks, Feeding Westchester and Regional Food Bank. In November, we are collecting for CHHOP/Fred's Pantry. I will announce a drive-through drop-off date for November soon, and we will also accept food donations at my district office during normal business hours on an ongoing basis. Please feel free to bring any unopened shelf-stable, non-expired food to our office at 8 Revolutionary Road in Ossining between the hours of 9-5 Monday through Friday; give us a call at (914) 941-1111 to confirm before you stop by. Each pantry also has suggested donations of things that are most useful to them/their community; see the flyer above for more details.

ICYMI: Healthcare Forum & Resource Fair

Big changes are coming to healthcare as a result of federal legislation. I co-hosted a healthcare forum and resource fair at the Ossining Public Library with Senator Pete Harchkham last week to help residents learn more and prepare in advance. We were joined by a panel of subject matter experts sharing critical information, particularly for those who are covered by Medicaid, the Essential Plan, or purchase health insurance from New York State of Health. Demystifying MEDICARE

& Healthcare Coverage for Seniors ~ FALL 2025 ~

Demystifying Medicare is perfect for anyone trying to navigate our complicated healthcare system for older adults. The workshop is for people who already have Medicare, as well as those soon to be 65, planning their retirement, or assisting relatives and friends with their medical decisions. DM is offered as part of the ongoing work of the Westchester Library System to provide authoritative, actionable information that supports seniors in being connected and well-informed. The workshop outlines the various parts of Medicare and lays out the costs and benefits associated with health insurance provided by the government and private companies. Topics include: Original Medicare, Advantage Plans, Prescription drug plans (Part D), Medigaps (supplemental plans), and various cost-saving programs (MSPs, Extra Help, EPIC, etc.).

Many Rivers, One Nation: Call for Submissions

Working with local historian and art curator Joyce Sharrock-Cole, my office is seeking submissions for our fourth art exhibition. Many Rivers, One Nation is the first of two exhibitions planned for 2026, during which we will celebrate the nation's 250th anniversary. The United States is built on journeys: forced and chosen, ancient and modern. This exhibition will explore migration, displacement, and the crossings that shaped America, with pieces highlighting the rivers, roads, and pathways that have carried people into our nation's shared story. Interested artists can learn more and submit work for consideration now through Monday, December 14 at <https://bit.ly/ManyRiversOneNation>.

Old Traditions, New Beginnings: Share a Thought, Make a Friend

Donna Landi — October 28, 2025

"I can rhyme a grocery list, but I can't make a meal," says 20-year Cortlandt Manor resident, Barbara Schore, with a laugh. The widowed mother and grandmother has had a life-long love for rhyming words. The former Hudson Valley Hospital Center employee says, "I always dreamed of being a lyricist and singer, but the funny thing is I can't read music or carry a tune." Despite these limitations, Barbara told River Journal that she wrote the lyrics to Another One Night Stand and I'm So Scared, two songs featured on singer Marty Bear's album, Road to Home, released in 1981.

An enthusiastic person with a wonderful sense of humor, Barbara derives inspiration for her poetry from day-to-day experiences. She has written poems that reflect on every stage of life from her observations as a young theater makeup artist to coming back to life after the passing of her husband. Like most writers, she occasionally experiences writer's

The “Old Traditions, New Beginnings” project aims to give seniors the opportunity to connect with others by sharing their stories, memories, recipes, or whatever legacy they would like to impart to the generations that follow. Contributions to this project are now regularly featured in the River Journal and River Journal North; click here to read the latest installment. If you are interested in contributing your own writing (250-1000 words) or volunteering to help others share their contributions, please email district95@nyassembly.gov.
