ASSEMBLYMAN  JOHN
LEMONDES

Meet our new assemblyman, John Lemondes!

John is a tireless worker, always ready for the next challenge, and thrilled to be the new representative of the 126th Assembly District.

John is a retired U.S. Army Colonel who served 27 years, including multiple combat tours. When he came home, John worked in the Defense Electronics Industry and started his own sheep farm with his wife and two children.

John loves his home state of New York, and he knows the challenges it faces daily. Following the pandemic, he is committed to solving key issues:

- ★ Making the COVID-19 vaccine accessible to all who want it
- ★ Supporting small businesses through sensible, fair legislation, free of aggressive governmental restrictions, while also getting them resources to help support them as they recover from the pandemic's restrictions
- ★ Lowering taxes to ensure families can support themselves
- ★ Fighting for the rights and needs of our state's farmers
- ★ Eliminating corruption in state government
- ★ Ensuring all students get back into the classroom as quickly and safely as possible

The use of military titles and photographs in uniform does not imply endorsement by the U.S. Army or the Department of Defense.
