Hometown Hero!

Assemblyman Mike Norris invites you to nominate a

On behalf of the residents of the 144th Assembly District, Assemblyman Mike Norris wants to say THANK YOU to our extraordinary citizens who helped and/or still are helping protect our community against the coronavirus and making a difference in these tough times.

That's why Assemblyman Norris is asking the public to nominate Hometown Heroes from communities in our district. This can be anyone who has helped from brightening someone's day or working day and night hospital shifts. Health care workers, grocery store personnel, police officers, volunteers, or neighbors — it can be anyone. The goal is to honor and show our appreciation to outstanding people in our community who have stepped up and helped. After all, that's why we love Western New York and love to call it home.

All nominees must be residents of the 144th Assembly District and cannot be candidates for public office.

If your nominee is selected to be honored, you and the honoree will be notified by mail.

To nominate your Hometown Hero, please fill out this form and return it by mail to Assemblyman Mike Norris at 8180 Main Street, Clarence, NY 14221. Or you can email him the same information at norrism@nyassembly.gov.
