Assemblyman Angelo J. Morinello is leading the charge against Albany corruption. He has zero tolerance for dirty pay-to-play politics and those who think they are above the law.

The rich and powerful need to play by the same rules as everyone else:

- Put corrupt politicians in jail and throw away the key
- Establish term limits for legislative leaders and committee chairs (A.5864)
- Eliminate bid-rigging so every business has the same opportunities, not just those who cozy up to state leaders (A.5864)
- Ban corrupt politicians from continuing to run for office (A.5864)
- Reduce campaign contribution rates to keep ‘big money’ and special interest groups out of politics (A.5864)
- Stop politicians from using their position to solicit cash bribes and donations from those looking for government influence
- Harsher penalties for officials who use state resources to fund their political campaigns (A. 6810)

“I’m tired of the ‘all talk, no action’ Albany politics that allowed corruption to consume our political system. The silence on ethics reform is deafening, but I’m not afraid to call out corrupt politicians and see that they face the consequences with prison time.”
