Assemblymember McMahon is working to protect vital programs that keep the cost of living down.

Karen voted to make the 2% property tax cap permanent. The cap has already saved Western New York taxpayers $1.2 billion (Ch. 59 of 2019).

Karen also:

- ✓ Increased funding for the Expanded In-home Services for the Elderly Program (EISEP), which offers non-medical in-home services such as personal care and housekeeping, by $15 million (Ch. 53 of 2019);
- ✓ Protected our health care by ensuring New Yorkers can't be denied care due to pre-existing conditions (Ch. 57 of 2019); and
- ✓ Worked to create a Utility Consumer Advocate that will fight unfair rate hikes and save consumers money (A.1966).
