Assemblymember Jon Rivera and Senator Sean Ryan are hosting a cleanup at Woodlawn Beach on Saturday, April 23rd. Bring the whole family for a fun day of cleaning up the beach to keep our community healthy and safe!

Penn Dixie Fossil Park & Nature Reserve will have a table displaying fossils from the Western New York region, and they are generously providing a free pass to the fossil park for each volunteer.

The Woodlawn Volunteer Fire Company will have a fire truck on site for families to explore.

Partners also include the Town of Hamburg and the New York State Office of Parks, Recreation, and Historic Preservation.

Meet outside of The Lodge at Woodlawn at 10 a.m. We will provide garbage bags and gloves. Please remember to wear weather-appropriate clothing and shoes.
